HARTLAND PUBLIC LIBRARY

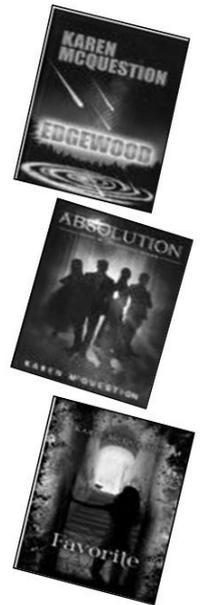

January—February, 2016 Events

Saturday, January 30th 1:00—3:00 p.m.

“How to Write a Novel”

By Karen McQuestion

Join author Karen McQuestion at the Hartland Public Library as she shares what she’s learned about writing novels. Her presentation will cover everything from the first word to publication and beyond. Registration is required. Email: hplinfo@hartland.lib.wi.us or call 262-367-3350 to sign up.

Hartland resident Karen McQuestion is the bestselling author of books for all ages. Some of her titles include Hello Love, Life on Hold, The Long Way Home, and the Edgewood series. Her publishing story has been covered by the Wall Street Journal, Entertainment Weekly, and the national NPR show The Story with Dick Gordon. She has also appeared on ABC’s World News Now and America This Morning. Her books have been published by Houghton Mifflin Harcourt and Amazon Publishing, produced by Brilliance Audio, and translated into four languages.

News & Events

Serving the libraries of Waukesha
& Jefferson Counties

News from the Bridges Library System (formerly WCFLS)

Our catalog is back in business! CAFÉ is up and running again with a new look—the holdings of the eight Jefferson County libraries are now listed, for a grand total of 2.3 million catalog items. Thank you all for your patience with the long process. It was a tough week, and we really appreciate all of your good cheer!

Win a copy of the 2015 Caldecott and Newbery Award books!

In January the American Library Association will announce the 2016 award winners in the field of literature for children. The Caldecott Award is given to the illustrator of the best picture book. The Newbery Award is given to the author of the best novel. Patrons of the Hartland Public Library will have a chance to enter a drawing to win a copy of one of the new award books. In the meantime, everyone is encouraged to check out one or more of the books that have won this prestigious award over the past decades.

Adult Interests

Writing Family Stories

Tuesday, Jan. 19 & February 16, 6:30 p.m.

This meeting of adults is open to all who are writing to keep family stories preserved for future generations. This is similar to a memoir club, though the stories do not have to be autobiographical. The members are encouraged to bring one new story every month to share with the others.

Book Clubs

Tuesday Evening Jan. 12, 6:30 p.m. - The group will make their selections from the novels by local author Karen McQuestion.

Tuesday, Feb. 2, 10:00 a.m.—"Deep Down Dark: The Untold Stories of 33 Men Buried in a Chilean Mine, and the Miracle That Set Them Free" by Hector Tobar.

Tuesday Evening Feb. 23, 6:30 p.m.—"Driftless" by David Rhodes

Books You Never Knew We Had

Have you ever watched a cooking show on television and wished that you could chop the way the chefs do? Check out the "The Complete Book of Knife Skills" by Jeffrey Elliot for a wonderful tutorial on kitchen knives and the skills that make food preparation easy and quick. This book and several others like it may be found on the first floor in the new addition; call number 642.6 ELLIOT

The "Merchant and Mills Sewing Book" by Carolyn Denham can help you get beyond buttons and hems and into the rediscovered art of home sewing. This beautiful book has a ton of information about fabrics, sewing tools, and simple patterns to get you sewing on your own. Find it and others near 646.4 DENHAM.

Children's Programs

Preschool Story Sessions

For ages 2 - 5 years

Your child must be two years old to enroll. These lively once a week sessions include stories, songs and a craft. Children are encouraged to attend on their own, but caregivers can remain with their child until they become used to the routine. This story time lasts about 40 minutes and is limited to 20 children. Sign-up is required.

Hug-A-Bye Baby

Infant Story Sessions

Friday, 9:30 - 10:00 a.m.

January 15—February 19

This short, 20-30 minute session features lap games, songs and action rhymes, stories and finger plays. Caregivers assist their child to participate in the class.

Saturday Programs

Super Saturday Story Hour

Jan. 16, Feb. 6 & 20 -9:30 a.m.

Bring 3-5 year old children for a preschool story time with the Hartand Lakeside School District and library staff! Stories, songs and crafts will make this a fun time for a Saturday morning.

Extra special in January!

TUESDAY EVENING STORY TIME

With the Harland Lakeside School district and library staff!

Registration is required, please call 262-367-3350

American Girl Club

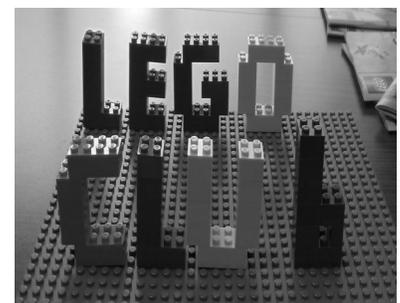

Saturday, Jan 23 & Feb. 27

1:00 PM for ages 8-11

Come explore the time periods of the dolls and their stories. We will enjoy crafts, games and food from the various American Girl dolls.

Registration is preferred.

LEGO Club

Sat., Jan, 23 & Feb. 27

9:30 AM ages 6-11

Enjoy building with LEGOs? Then LEGO Club is for you! We provide the bricks and you bring the imagination.

Libraries today are less about what they have for people and more about what they do for and with people.

Libraries Transform

- Because employers want candidates who know the difference between a web search and research.
- Because not everything on the internet is true.
- Because students can't afford scholarly journals on a ramen noodle budget.
