$5,000 REWARD Offered for Hartland Bank Robbery

Justin Tolomeo, Special Agent in Charge (SAC) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Milwaukee Division announced today a $5,000 REWARD as the FBI seeks the public's help in identifying violent bank robbery suspects believed to be responsible for the armed robbery of Great Midwest Bank in Hartland, Wisconsin.

On Saturday, October 13, 2018, at approximately 9:02 a.m. two unidentified suspects robbed Great Midwest Bank, located at 600 Hartbrook Drive in the Village of Hartland, WI. One of the two male subjects displayed a handgun, both subjects fled from the bank after obtaining an undisclosed amount cash and are described as follows:

Subject #1, black male, 45 to 49 years old, approximately 5'7" to 5'9" tall with an average build. He wore a light green zip up hooded jacket, blue jeans, black shoes, sunglasses, and a green stocking cap.

Subject #2, light skinned black male or Hispanic male, in his twenties, slightly taller than subject #1, with a thin build. Subject #2 wore a black hooded sweatshirt, blue jeans, black shoes, and gloves. He wore a hood to cover his head and covered his face with a cloth material to conceal his identity. Subject #2 also displayed a black semi-automatic handgun during the robbery.
